

RACECAR EURO-SERIES 2011 ROUND 1 - NOGARO (France) – 23/25 Avril THE REVOLUTION IS ON THE WAY !!!

Born in 2009, RACECAR Euro Series start 2011 in Nogaro from April the 23th to the 25th their first season as FIA International Series. A true consecration for these world unique series inspired by NASCAR and which appears to be a thru revolution for the European motorsports. With 29 cars entering and a great mix of professional and amateur drivers, the 2011 RACECAR Euro Series' lineup is worth one of the best European series. This is also the first channel to NASCAR for European drivers. Who will be the next 2011 ELITE Champion and win the great prize to race a NASCAR event ?

They are a lot to apply to be the ELITE (professionals) Championship winner, beginning with the reigning Champion Lucas Lasserre. He will face his 2010 archrival Eric Hélyary again and many other talented rookies such as Romain Thiévin (Fast Club TV show driver), Patrice Goueslard, Spanish Ander Vilariño, Belgian Eric De Doncker (twice GT4 European Champion) or Romain Iannetta. In Junior Trophy, young guns will fight for victory : the 2009 Champion Willy Boucenna, Steven Palette, Carole Perrin or Romain Fournillier. But they all will have to take care of other drivers who will wish to shine and reach victory lane : Bruno Cosin, Olivier Pernaut, Didier Moureu, Christophe Anquetil or Jérôme Schneider. To represent Asia, Jo Merszei will race under the colors of Macau, he raced in WTCC and Formula 3.

In OPEN (amateurs) Championship, the 2010 Champion Manu Brigand will face a lot of challengers who want his title. Let's list Alain Grand, Frédéric Lajoux or Christophe Dechavanne the famous French TV star, who returns to motorsport after some off seasons attracted by his first tests in RACECAR.

Racing through Europe, stopping in Motorland Aragon, Zandvoort, Magny Cours, Spa, Brands Hatch and Le Mans, the 2011 RACECAR Euro Series will definitely be a great show ... Drivers, Start your engines!!!!
