

DAYTONA – 11/13 NOVEMBRE LONG LIVE THE 8 HOURS OF DAYTONA!!!

For all, the Daytona experience in World Touring Racecars was unforgettable. All drivers enjoyed race on this mythic track with performing and reliable WTRs. They could all have put themselves in Tom Cruise's shoes in "days of Thunder" movie. The date is settled from November 8th to 11th 2012 for these already classic 8 hours of Daytona!

What better than spend a November week under the sun of Florida? When the event is settled in Daytona, not less than the Temple of motorsport, and you can drive reliable and incredibly fun WTRs, it becomes a real driver's dream. After 3 exceptional days, 2 x 45-minute Sprint races were scheduled on Sunday to conclude 8 hours of track time on the world famous speedway.

Sunday: Sprint 2 GT – 45'

With no fear, the new experienced drivers can start this sprint among an amazing grid of GTs. Romain Thievin makes the best start and has an amazing fight with Sylvain Noel and Anthony Garbarino. At only 19, Garbarino is the true revelation of this Daytona's event. The 3 men will stay altogether all race long for a door-to-door battle at more than 265 km/h. Thievin will not succeed in containing Sylvain Noel who will finally win. Jerome Galpin started last and makes a good race by finishing 3rd and Benoit Fretin 4th when Anthony Garbarino slows down in the last lap to finish 5th.

WTR classification: 1 S.Noël – 2 R.Thievin – 3 J.Galpin – 4 B.Fretin – 5 A.Garbarino – 6 JP.Grenier

Sunday: Sprint 2 Historic Stock Car – 45'

Once again, Stephane Enout does a clear round and wins ahead of Regis Gourdon and Michel Grenier who switch their places on the podium compared with the 1st Sprint. Olivier Salam and Gerard Tremblay complete the top 5 and accumulating a maximum of fun.

WTR classification: 1 S.Enout – 2 R.Gourdon – 3 M.Grenier – 4 O.Salam – 5 G.Tremblay

All the participating drivers and teams are unanimous about the excellence of their American week-end. Everything was there to make an unforgettable event: exceptional circuit, a top of the range meeting, 8 hours of track time, sun, sea and convivial atmosphere. Numerous teams and drivers are expected for the 2012 edition, from November 8th to 11th to live their ... American dream !!!
